The letter of P. Cordova Secretary of the State Military Board - declining to obey and order from Head Quarters because written in pencil "by an Officer not mentioned in the public orders as belonging to the Staff of the General", has been referred to me.

I can only say that the order was written with the means at hand, which you will remember were not ample, & I was not aware of any regulations requiring initials & pen on the Battle field.

As to the doubt of genuineness, many persons at hand could have whether a newspaper publication, after his necessary to ensure obedience to orders signed Disobedience of orders. All on the 11th inst. 62

The members of the Co. on that day were permitted to participate in a of the day said Peters, having imbibed

As a wife and several children, and Question.

Ans. Mr. Peters was on guard about the 18th of Mr. Muschie told me to look out that Peters did not leave the Quarters. Peters asked me for leave to make his horse. I told him to go, but come right back. He staid longer than he should have staid & I sent after him. I saw him when he came back. He was too drunk to perform duty. He was not bootless as saying until he was overboard, he then became other quarrelsome. He came off post at five o'clock and was intoxicated then.
Peters left to go to his dinner at half past eleven & come back at about half past one.
He was put on ^{guard} at three o'clock.

Question by Defense. When did I come off guard, Ans. at five o'clock - your time to come on again was from nine to eleven. I did not call you at nine - the Lieut said you were not fit for duty, & another man was put in your place, orders having been given to keep you in the guard house.

Question. Now all that you know in reference to the charge & specification against Private J. G. Peter which you have just heard read - ?

Ans. I know that Mr Peter got drunk while he was a member of the guard and that he left the guard house, without permission of the Officer of the guard. This was on or about the 18th of February 1862. I saw him drunk. He was not drunk when detailed - got drunk after words.
He quitted the guard house & got drunk - but did not quit his post. He was too drunk to put on guard, & I had him arrested. This happened in Galveston County, Texas.

Question of Defense. Do you know what time he was put on guard in the morning?

Ans. I do not know.

Question. Was he relieved at five in the evening?

Ans. Yes he was relieved about five in the evening.

Question. Did you see me on my horse after

This is in reply to your communication of 17 May 1952, herewith returned.

The records show that one R. B. Phillips, name not shown as Robert Bruce Phillips, private, Company D, 26th Regiment Texas Cavalry (DeGray's Regiment, Davis' Mounted Battalion), Confederate States Army, enlisted 10 October 1863 at Galveston. The company muster roll for January and February 1864, only roll on file, shows his presence. No later record of him has been found.

This collection of records is by no means complete, and failure to find the entire record of Confederate military service does not indicate necessarily that an individual did not serve at some period not covered by the records.

Sincerely yours,

I incl

I herewith submit to your consideration the following facts. In accordance with S O No - from Dist Hd Qrs I was transferred from the 1st Detach Reg to Cooke Reg of Heavy Artillery. I had obtained leave of absence for two days to remain in Galveston, my child being very ill at the time, and was up to my departure for my command, which I expected to meet at Houston, or enroute for La.

I left my horse at Harrisburg, until I should return from Galveston, on returning to Harrisburg, I was informed my horse had ran away, I spent two days endeavoring to find him, so that I might join my command, having failed to find him, I returned to Houston, and applied to Lt Dowling of Cooke Reg, having learned that he had recd authority from the Maj Genl commanding, to recruit from the dismounted Cav, and not wishing to be reported absent without leave, I was at once transferred; to report immediately to Col Cook at Galveston

I obeyed the order. I herewith enclosed copy of order, recd from Col Cook: revoking my transfer, and ordered to rejoin my former command.

I am reported as a Deserter, to all of which, I can say that I was performing my duty, and am thus accused of deserting my Colours, I ~~entered~~ the service in Oct-18 have never been in Guard House and thus far I consider I have done my duty as a soldier.

I would respectfully ask that I may be transferred to ~~the~~ ~~Lug~~ ~~Co's~~ Cooks Reg't being unable to remount myself.

Special Order

No 26

X 11 A Board of officers will convene at Fort Worth Texas on the 5th day of March 1864 at 12 o'clock M. as at or soon thereafter as practicable for the examination of such disabled, disqualified and incompetent officers as may be reported to said Board as business for in the act of Congress No 26 and approved Oct 13th 1862 and published to the Army in Genl Orders No 93 Adjutant and Inspector General's office June 1st of that year.

Detail for the Board

- 1 Col Abbel Smith
- 2 Col S. W. Baird
- 3 Lt. Col. N. L. Maginnis

By command of Lt. Gen. E. Kirby Smith

(signed) S. S. Anderson. asst G. Genl.

In conformity with Special Orders above recited and in obedience to Special Orders No. from the Major General Coming. Major Rindan reported to the Board for Examination. Major Rindan entered the service 15th Sept 1861 as Captain, was promoted to be Major on the 28 Oct. 1862 and has been acting as such to the present time.

After an examination running through nearly three days in which Major Rindan was not able to answer any question correctly, he requested permission to tender his resignation.

Whether Major Rindan's very great ignorance of Duties has arisen from inattention or inability to acquire the knowledge of the same, the Board is unable to determine. The Board is satisfied this ignorance is real and that the party examined tended himself to the utmost to answer correctly the questions submitted to him.

His confidence for his present position is manifest; his tender of resignation is to avoid the disgrace of being dropped from the rolls. Major Rindan is believed to be truly loyal and willing to serve the country in such capacity as he may be fitted for.

The Board of Examiners are of opinion that the good of the service would be as fully accomplished by the acceptance of his resignation as by dropping him from the rolls. They therefore respectfully recommend that his resignation be accepted and that he be permitted to volunteer in the 1st Corps in the District as he may wish.

Respectfully submitted,

Lee Rankin - 1, Delany's Mounted Battalion.
Edmonton. March. 24th 1862.
Mr. Campbell, Surgeon - was sworn as witness for President Lee Rankin - Note all that you know in regard to the charges & specifications which you have heard read?

Ans. Lee Rankin was brought to me at the Hospital, examined him, could see nothing. The matter with him, I told him to take his bed - He said he had a blanket, I told him to go & get it - he departed & from that day to this I have never seen Mr. Lee Rankin.
He (Lee Rankin) brought a reg. cos order from the Command of the Company for me to receive him. The officer who brought Lee Rankin, had the order to receive him.

The Confederate States.
Albert Siskamp. Co. H. M.B. 3

Sergeant R. D. Duncanson of Co. F. was asked as a witness for the defense.
I wish to state all that you know about my case.

One week before Siskamp was arrested he came in my house. He asked me if he could live with me.
I told him I would keep him for about two weeks. He said he wanted to cure himself. He had his own satchel. He lived about one week in my house.
One day two men came and asked me if Siskamp was in my house.
They were both drunk. I told them that Siskamp was not in my house.
They told me they had a letter for Siskamp from a man in the company whom I knew was Dr. Duncanson. The two men said that Dr. Duncanson in the letter said to Siskamp that he Dr. Duncanson had three swords, which he wanted Siskamp to live. The two men went back in town, and in about an hour and a half Siskamp came to my house.
Ten minutes after this Martin Rovel came alone.

Liekump was in the Kitchen. Ronel asked me if Liekump was at home, I said yes. And called Liekump in the room. Martin Ronel said to Liekump come down to the back the old man (Capt Merow) wants to see you. Liekump told Ronel he was sick, & could not go. Ronel said you must go. Ronel took Liekump by the Crook - almost when my wife called to me that the men were fighting, I jumped up and saw Liekump being thrown loose from ~~Captain~~ ~~Liekump~~. The porties picked up a great fuss in the house, frightening my wife who is in the family way.
 I told Ronel if he wished to arrest Liekump he must go and get an order. I dressed & went down to the Captain. I told Ronel that the order was good enough, but that he must get a friend. I told Captain Merow that Martin Ronel was drunk and wanted to fight Liekump. Captain Merow said that was not right, & said he would correct it. In the mean time the guard came, & found Liekump was not at my house. In the evening Liekump came back to my house. I told Liekump he must go to the Camp ^{before} ~~the~~ the next morning

I went with him, & when we got to the Washington Hotel, I told Mike Sweeney to tell him how ever Leekamp, come to go in the company - & Mike Sweeney arrested him. Major Rowel & Mike Sweeney were both drunk good, when they came in my house.
 I think Leekamp was quarrelsome and had the Rheumatism. Some times he went out, saying he was going to see the Dr. He laid down frequently three parts of the day. I never knew Leekamp until I joined the Company. He is a gentleman I think, & disposed to do his duty. He was frequently sick -

Private Martin Russell of Co. "F" Delroy's Mounted Btl. was duly sworn as a witness for Prosecution.

Question. State all that you know in regard to the charges & specifications against Private Albert Seeham, which you have just heard read?

Ans. Capt. McEnard sent four of us to look for him - it was the day of the election - Capt. McEnard gave me an order to arrest Seeham - I went for him, as at first could not find him - then went to Duncan's house myself
- found him - I told him Capt. McEnard wanted to see him - He (Seeham) said he did not want to see Capt. McEnard.
He refused to come with me. I told him if he did not come by four means, that I would have to take him by force, having been so ordered by the Captain. I coaxed him to come - He said he would not go to the Co. until Mr. Jerny came. I put my hand on his collar, & told him to come on. Mr. Duncan heard me, & jumped up and asked what I meant. I told him I was taking Seeham to the instructions from the Captain - the Attorney for my authority. I showed him the Captain's letter. He said it was no account, & that he did not care any more for that than he did for the Captain, and told me to get out of his house - I asked him if he would order me to take the man Leekhampton - Duncol said he would not. Duncol said that I must know better, & bring an armed guard. I went and brought a guard, & they Duncol & Leekhampton were both gone.

Sergeant Duncol is a member of Co. F. de Regt. Mounted Battalion.
I am also a private in the above mounted company. The order of Captain Howard, who addressed to the Provost Marshall, being an order to him to receive the Prisoner.
I am not positive that my name was mentioned in it.
The house where I found the Prisoner was the residence of Sergeant Duncol.

George N. Shelton, Co. F. 1st Regt.

George N. Shelton, Co. F. 1st Regt. was duly examined as a witness for the prosecution & defense.

I take what you know in regard to the charges and specifications which you have now read?

Ans. The fight commenced thus. Shelton came into the camp where Butfield was, & Butfield told him to go out. Shelton said he would not; and Butfield undertook to put Shelton out, and did so. After he put Shelton out, they got to fighting. Butfield when he got the door, was striking at Shelton.
& Shelton was giving back. They were pushed thru.
The tent belonged to the 1st of which both Butfield & Shelton were members.
Butfield told Shelton to go out in anger - Butfield laid his hand on Shelton when he put him out the tent. I did not see Shelton strike Butfield -

The Confederate States

Private J. M. Shelton Co. F. M. B.

Private R. E. Foster Co. F. M. B. was duly sworn as a witness for Prosecution.

Question. State what you heard in regard to the charge and specification which you have just heard read?

Ans. Mr. Bartfield started to carry his bedding out of the tent, and Mr. Shelton was standing between him and the door carrying his head. Bartfield ordered Shelton to go out of the tent - the door of Shelton did not go out of the tent, he would not let him out.
Shelton remarked that he would not go out until he got ready. Bartfield then took hold of Shelton and shoved him out of the tent. After Shelton got out words were spoken & I don't know which struck the first blow - The first I saw struck was from Bartfield who struck Shelton - that they were fought - This occurred in the morning I think between seven and eight - I heard Mr. Shelton say to Bartfield that there was room to pop, and I think gave Mr. Bartfield room to go by him.
It is the practice to catch heads in the tent. Bartfield threw his bed in Shelton's face.

General G. B. Herbert commanding Department of Texas.

Sir—The undersigned would respectfully represent that he has in the Confederate service two sons, one Robert Singleton of the age of eighteen, and one John Singleton of the age of twenty two years; that the undersigned is the head of a numerous family of children, out of whom except Robert and John and a daughter nearly grown, are small and infirm; that the chief property of the undersigned, consists of live stock, in a very sparse population, where assistance to herd and take care of the same, cannot often be procured, and that the custody and safe keeping of his flock, and the care of his family, in the present feeble condition of his health are too burdensome for the undersigned without material aid from some reliable person. Wherefore, the undersigned prays the Military Commandant of the Department of Texas, to permit him to furnish an able bodied and good substitute in the place of the said ^{Robert} Robert. The undersigned in conclusion would add, that ^{John} Robert is a member of Col. De Brays' Regiment, Captain Hare's Company and that both of the above officers are perfectly willing to the proposed arrangement.

Houston 20 May 1862.

Very respectfully,

James W. Singleton.

We, the undersigned are well acquainted with the circumstances and condition of Mr J. W. Singleton, and cheerfully recommend his application to the favorable consideration of General Herbert.

Judge Advocate said - Now my question you have heard the charge preferred against you, what say you quietly or not quietly? - The prisoner remaining mute. Judge Advocate entered the Plea of Not Guilty - Corp Lolo, avowed for prosecution was July Sumner & others. My name is James Lolo, Corporal in Capt. Richards Co. "Mere Rebels", Co I P A, and the prisoner is a private in same Co. As Corp of the Guard I went at 12 o'clock the night of the 15 of October, 1861 to relieve the prisoner, who was standing guard, as a sentinel. After looking him for some time I found him asleep, lying down, with his gun a little beyond him reach. I picked him three or four times before I roused him. He was posted as a sentinel at 10 o'clock that night in a lot where the horses of the Co were kept and some hay and corn. His post was I suppose some ten hundred yards from the guard house, the way we go. I picked up his musket before I awoke him - all this occurred in salubrious near the camp of our Company.

Question by the Court - How long have you known the prisoner?

Answer since the 15th of last month -

Question How he a private in the company at that time? - Answer he was Question When were you a private Corporal?

Answer Since I joined the Company.

Question, Are you or not acquainted with the character of the man, of prisoner, or his general character, of his work and of his intelligence? - Answer

Answer. I am particularly well acquainted, but believe that it is very limited - I have heard soldiers talking of him, and he seemed not to

to understand them, altogether

Answer The guard, that prisoner released, instructed him,

I was present, but cannot state whether he understood the instructions or not.

Quest How long was he kept on duty that night?

Answer Not more than the regular time.

Q How was he instructed, when posted

Answer In English

Quest What did he say?

Answer Nothing

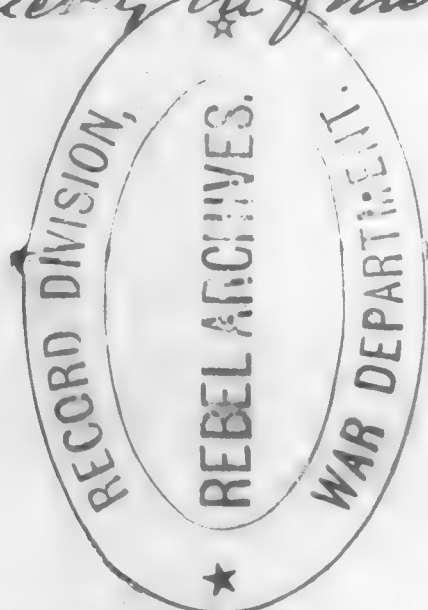

Quest Have you ever spoken with him, or have you heard him speak English?

Answer I have, and he appeared to understand me; he speaks some English, but very Camp Pyle, April 28, 1862.

Col. H. B. De Bray—

Dear Sir— I am now beyond the age of 35 years, the period at which, under the late law men are exempt from military duty. I have been a soldier for sixteen years, and have in the last month married a wife with a widowed mother, from whose neighborhood every able bodied man has gone to the field and I not only feel a strong inclination ^{but feel it my duty} to stay at home. And protect her and widowed mother— and I therefore most respectfully tender you this, my resignation, hoping you will recommend the same to the ad-jutors, and relieve me from further performance of my duties.

Respectfully, Your most Obedt Serv't.

being Court Martialed for a sup-to me. I wish to say that as far as I am concerned, I do not wish no criminal intention. And I take this method of exonerating him

Sir:

I beg most respectfully to report myself for duty, in accordance with Gen. Orders No 175 issued by Maj. Gen. Commdy J. R. Magruder. I am a private of Co. Cavalry Bat. Weir's Legion, which is now on the east side of the Mississippi river under Gen. Johnson. I have been sick ever since I left Texas, was taken prisoner on the retreat from Abbeville, at Oxford, Miss. When I got free again I was so sick that I was sent to the Hospital (No 1) at Vicksburg, Miss. where I remained, when convalescent, acting in the capacity of clerk until its capture on the 4th of July last, but was not paroled until July 17th when I could not procure a furlough which accounts for my being here without one.

I would most respectfully ask of you a position or a detail in one of the offices in town as past experience teaches me that I am perfectly useless in camps.

Please direct your order to the care of Mr. James Corley C. S. Depository. Hoping you will grant my petition

I Remain,

Most Respectfully

Your Obedient Servant

Sergeant David B. Sorley of Company "F."

A. H. Baldwin, Corporal in Company "F." was duly sworn as a witness for the prosecution.

Question. State all you know in relation to the charges against Defendant, which you have heard and to your?

Ans. On Sunday Feb. 9th, at Bolivar Tennessee, we were round the fire getting supper, & the cook was using the pan, Mr. Sorley had some small birds & wanted to fry them, while he was waiting for the pan, Corporal Croone came up & remarked that Sorley could have it after his supper was cooked. As Mr. Sorley had been waiting for the pan some twenty minutes, he said that he thought he had more right to it than the Corporal who depended with him on that point. & a dispute grew out of this. After they had disputed for three or four minutes Mr. Croone, remarked that Sorley was continually trying to pick a quarrel with some of the men. Mr. Sorley then said that the charge was not true or false, I don't exactly remember the word. Corporal Croone then remarked that if it was not for the stripe on his Sorley's arm, that he would stop his saw. Mr. Soley then remarked that Crane had better not try to stop him. After this some more words on both sides passed, and at last Mr. Crane stopped Mr. Soley while he Soley was sitting down, Mr. Crane standing up the reason while Mr. Soley immediately came up & hit Mr. Crane, and they followed it up, probably not less than six or eight blows passing, Mr. Crane, striking three times to Soley's once. After the second blow Mr. Soley tried to get away, backing off from Mr. Crane & telling him to leave him - Mr. Soley had at the time a fork in his hand which he was using to cook with, which Mr. Crane, thought Mr. Soley was going to thrust into him, as he said "thrust that into me you son of a bitch. I don't think Mr. Soley had any intention to use the fork - After Mr.

 Crane called Soley a son of a bitch, Soley acted entirely on the defensive. Immediately after the first blow I attempted to separate them, but Mr. Crane insisted on carrying it on further; Mr. Soley did not strike Crane over three times. Crane struck the first blow. The pan was the property of the men & both parties belonged to the same men. Mr. Crane thought he had the best right to the pan, because he had already cooked one flap jack, & thought he ought to have another. Mr. Loeby was at the fire first. This occurred in Golleston County. The flap jacks were a portion of the regular meal of the men.

Question. by the Defense. Did you hear me make use of the word Golles.

Ans. I don't know. it was an equivocal expression.

Question. Before Boone told me that I was always quarrelling, he called me, a d- & little punk - did he not -?

Ans. Yes. he did more than once - vs.

Theodore F. Crane, was duly sworn as a witness for the prosecution.

Question. State what you know in reference to the charges against Sordy.

Ans. The matter originated from frying so me pan cakes. I suggested that they be cooked before they were cold. Which three of them did. Sordy had a plate of black birds which he wished to cook. At the same time I had already one cake done in the pan for me. I wanted to eat the pan cakes, & wished to cook more, before Sordy cooked the black birds. I told him he had better wait until I had the other one cooked. He made the remark that he be do - & if he would not use the pan - that he had as good right to the use of it as I did. I said that I did not dispute his right to the frying pan, but that I would like to eat all at once. He then made a remark which I don't recollect. I told him he seemed to be very anxious to pick a quarrel. He said no, on the contrary I was. I then told him it was false. He then said I was a God & a liar.

I then told him if it was not for the ship, on his arms I would smother him over.
 He then, as he came up, struck me a back handed blow - then I immediately struck him back. He had a fork in his right hand at the time, and he made a lunge at me with it, which I parried, & scratched me on the neck. I then made the remark - "You d - I saw of a b - at why don't you thrust it in." About that time three persons stopped us.

Witup Baldwin, recoll'd at the instance of Dyk Question. Did I make a strike at Crane with the fork I had in my hand? Or did I hit him with it at all?

Ans. In backing from Crane, & throwing his hands out to ward off the blow, I conclude that Crane got the scratch on his neck from the fork. I noted the scratch after the affray was over. I am confident that Sorley did not strike at Crane, with the intention of hitting him with the fork. I was present, & close to both parties during the time of the fray -

Question. Did I at any time call Crane a God d--d liar?

Ans. I don't know that I can answer whether you did or not. I don't recollect that you did. I can't say positively whether you did or not.
